VOL. CXV. No. 162. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA WEDNESDAY, JULY 8, 1914. PRICE, 2 CENTS

OBTAIN PLENTY OF SIGNATURES

Prohibition Forces Have Twice as Many as Are Necessary.

NO ENTHUSIASM HERE

Only a Small Proportion of the Electorate in Alexandria Append Names to the Papers.

At almost the last hour permitted by law for the filing of petitions to the governor of Virginia asking him to call a special election of September 22nd, for the purpose of voting on the question of state wide prohibition, petitions were filed with Nevell S. Greenaway signed by 89 Alexandrians. It was said at the time that there were two other petitions being circulated which had a number of names affixed. Alexandria has 1,600 registered voters and the signers in favor of prohibition therefore only represent a small proportion of the electorate.

Clerk Greenaway will certify to B. O. James, the secretary of the commonwealth, the number of the names signed to the petitions today and Mr. James in turn will advise the governor so that he can call the election.

The law requires that 18,000 voters in the state petition the governor and it is stated that more than 30,000 signatures have already been secured.

Richomnd, July 8.—"More than twice the number of signatures requisite for the calling of an election on the prohibition question have been secured," said Rev. James Cannon, D. D., superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, yesterday afternoon. Eighteen thousand signatures are necessary, and our latest estimate shows over 36,000 secured."

MUNYON GETS DIVORCE.

Patent Medicine Man's Wife Was a Musical-Comedy Actress.

Philadelphia, July 8.—"Professor" James M. Munyon, the patent medicine man, was granted a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Pauline Louise Neff Munyon, yesterday. Suit was begun a year ago, but the papers were impounded and ground for the action was concealed.

As Pauline Neff, Mrs. Munyon was popularly known on the musical comedy and vaudeville stage. Her marriage, which took place in Jersey City, in April, 1908, came as a surprise to the Munyon family. Mrs. Munyon had been married before, when she was 16 years old and had been divorced.

At the time of their marriage Munyon was about 60 and his bride 24 years old. A little more than a year later it was rumored that their married life was not harmonious and the rumors were verified when Mrs. Munyon sued for divorce, charging cruelty and barbarous treatment in June, 1909.

Five months later a reconciliation was effected and Mrs. Munyon returned to her husband's home and it was said that all was peace nad happiness. The following June Munyon and his wife had a serious quarrel in a motor car in front of the City Hall and several hundred persons saw Mrs. Munyon strike her husband in the face, tear away some of his clothing and throw a suitcase to the street. Mrs. Munyon then returned to the stage and appeared in vaudeville. Another row took place in December of last year when the Munyons met in Broad Street Station.

Call to Bull Moosers.

Norfolk, Va., July 8.—Percy S. Stephenson, chairman of the Progressive party in Virginia, in a statement mailed to the party leaders throughout the State, urged upon them the necessity of a loyal and efficient party organization in every county and city of the Commonwealth.

NEWS OF THE DAY

A launch party cruising two miles off Cleveland on Lake Erie yesterday found the headless body of a woman. Life savers recovered the body and brought it to shore. The corpse was identified later as that of Mrs. Emma Weisburg, who had been missing since March 7.

George Blackiston, president of the Union Trust Company, and the Belvidere Hotel Company, died at his country home near Ryder, Md., yesterday morning. He was 60 years old.

Jealousy and crime in declining years of life were described yesterday in an extraordinary case at the Chester, England, assizes, where a woman 72 years old, was sentenced to death for the murder of her husband. She alleged a love affair on the part of her husband with another woman.

District Attorney Horace A. Fitch yesterday began an investigation into an alleged attempt to poison Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Matrailles at East Bloomfield, N. Y. Enough paris green to poison a regiment was dumped into the Matrailles' well, according to county bacteriologist Sanderson, who examined water taken from it. Mr. and Mrs. Matrailles were married six weeks ago. It is intimated that a suitor for Mrs. Matrailles' hand, who was rejected, is suspected. At midnight July 3, Matrailles heard a noise in his yard and saw a man running away. In the morning quantities of paris green were discovered about the well

The world's lightweight championship title changed hands in London last night after twenty rounds of most remarkable fighting. Freddie Welsh won the decision over Willie Ritchie.

Violence marked the elections for city and provincial elections which have been going on throughout Italy the last few days. In the constituency where Prince Berghese was a candidate a serious riot took place, in which one man was killed and another seriously injured.

Samuel M. Wilhite, City Comptroller and prominent in Louisville, Ky., club and social circles, was arrested yesterday, charged with embezzlement of city funds following a report by expert accountants that they had discovered a shortage of approximately $14,500 in the Comptroller's office.

A dispatch to the Paris Temps from Belgrade, Servia, says extraordinary military activity is being displayed in Austria-Hungary. It says 40 carloads of artillery are known to have left Budapest yesterday for the frontier and feverish energy is being shown along the whole northern border of Servia.

Three men were killed and two others badly injured in Washington yesterday as a result of an explosion in the Zoo sewer tunnel. It is believed that the workmen while drilling preparatory to making a blast, struck an unexploded charge of dynamite. The killed, all of whom were negroes, were John Murray, George Boxley and "Bud" Masterson.

The sentence imposed upon Upton Sinclair last April on a charge of disorderly conduct for attempting publicly to rebuke John D. Rockeller for his attitude in the Colorado strike situation, was confirmed in the Court of General Sessions in New York yesterday. When given the alternative in the magistrate's court of paying a fine of $5 or serving three days in the Tombs, Sinclair chose the latter, and began a hunger strike. He served two days of his sentence, then his wife paid the remainder of the fine. According to Judge Crain's opinion, "no citizen has a right to rebuke another citizen by subjecting him to ridicule or insult."

A gardener at Hollis Wood Hall, Long Island, yesterday found a gem-studded watch and damond necklace apparently growing on a crimson rambler rose bush. The jewels, worth $10,000, are back in possession of their owner, Mrs. J. F. Burdock, of St. Paul, Minn., at the Waldorf-Astoria, who had lost them while picking roses.

FIGHTING RAGING NEAR VERA CRUZ

Mexican Troops Mutiny Against Huerta Officers This Week.

WOULD JOIN REBELS

Situation Full of Gravest Possibilities and Gen. Funston Is Keeping Constantly on Alert.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, July 8.—Fighting among factions of the Mexican Federal forces just outside the American outposts, raged yesterday and threatens possibilities of a serious consequence, that may involve General Funston's army of invasion.

An infantry outpost of 60 men, with their officers, mutinied Monday night and are seeking to join a small force of Constitutionalists that has worked its way into the vicinity, gathering recruits by the way. Lieutenant-Colonel Izunza, in command of all the Federal outposts outside Vera Cruz, got close enough to the fleeing outpost to the southwest of Tejeria to warrant him in attacking the mutineers. A desultory but rather sharp engagement ensued, the mutineers continuing their flight. The Mexican commander has with him 200 men and has asked for reinforcements from Cordoba, on whose arrival he expects to continue the pursuit.

Only a handful of rural guards is left by Colonel Izunza at Tejaria, which is near the point where the daily exchange of passengers on the railroad takes place.

Captain Aguilar and two lieutenant led the mutinous infantry post of 60 men. They had been in communication with a body of Constitutionalist troops estimated at 1,000 men, who moved northward from a point near Boca Del Rio just south of Vera Cruz. This organization worked its way along the lines of the Americans and Mexicans until near Tejeria.

The outpost sent forward an emissary to notify the Constitutionalists that Captain Aguilar was ready to do his part. The captain then seized the mounts of the rural guards and all the ammunition in the vicinity. The Constitutionalists had organized themselves only a few days ago after receiving a consignment of ammunition and arms from Tuxpan which had been landed near Boca Del Rio and they were directed by agents from the Tuxpan headquarters.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Mrs. Joseph Johnson Says He Was Shot from Roadside, but She Is Held for Murder.

Raleigh, N. C., July 8.—Mrs. Joseph Johnson, aged 22, was arrested at Speed, N. C., yesterday afternoon on the charge of killing her husband on Saturday night near Holy Ghost Church, in Martin County. Johnson, who was a prominent farmer, took his wife out riding. Later the horse was seen running near the church and was stopped. Close behind was Mrs. Johnson, who said her husband had been shot from the roadside. The man was found dead in the road 100 yards away. A new pistol, only one chamber of which had been fired, was found by the corpse. Johnson was shot in the left temple, and his hair near where the ball entered was powder burned. Mrs. Johnson will be given a preliminary trial tomorrow.

$700 EXPRESS PACKAGE GONE

Cash Was Shipped from Clifton Forge to Staunton, Va.

Staunton, Va. July 8.—A package containing $700, shipped from Clifton Forge to the National Valley Bank here, through Adams Express Company, is lost and supposed to be stolen. The express agent says it never reached his office. It was signed for at the Chesapeake and Ohio station by Express Messenger Rohr. Detectives are making an investigation. The shipment was made last Friday and the facts have just come out.

AGREEMENT REACHED

Ninth District Patronage Matters Will Be Settled.

Washington, D. C., July 8.—An agreement has been reached by all those who have heretofore figured in Ninth District patronage matters, under which the seven presidential postoffice vacancies now existing will be immediately settled by preferential primary elections in the respective communities.

The seven vacancies now existing are at Graham, Lebanon, Honaker, Big Stone Gap, Pocahontas, North Tazewell and Dante. Unless some unforseen hitch occurs arrangements will be made by the regular election holding primaries just as soon as possible.

Senator Swanson, when asked regarding the agreement reached, stated that he had not taken a hand in bringing the matter about. He said, however, that the arrangement was satisfactory to him.

Senator Martin made the following statement:

"You may say for me that I am now and always have been, for the people of every community to have the privilege of selecting their own officials in their own way. If they want to choose their own postmasters through a primary, why, I have not a single objection to urge. It is for them and their representatives in Congress to work out. I have no right to interfere with the appointment of postmasters at Richmond, Newport News, Norfolk, Lynchburg, Roanoke, Staunton or Harrisonburg. Those matters belong to the representatives of the districts in which those cities are located. All I did in the Ninth District was to refuse to press matters until the authorities of that district could get together on a plan, and I did it at their request. Even my enemies say it has resulted in an agreement whereby all trouble can be settled. So I have nothing to regret.

"You can make it as strong as you like. I always have been, and always will be, for what the people of Virginia want. But I am not willing to judge their desires by what perennial candidates for office, whom they have so often rejected, say they want. When the people themselves tell me what they want, you will find Tom Martin for it. And that applies to Virginia patronage as well as to everything else. Yes, sir, you may say unequivocally that if the people of a community want a primary over a postoffice, so far as I am concorned they are welcome to it. That is why I was happy to acquiesce in such an arrangements for the Ninth District."

KIDNAPPED BRIDE TO EUROPE.

Groom Loses Race to Reclaim Her by One Minute.

New York, July 8.—When an irate father chases you off his grounds with a shotgun and then you manage to elope successfully with your sweetheart, only to have the said irate parent carry her away a few minutes later and take her off to Europe, with you missing the steamship by about 60 seconds, then you will feel just the way Francis K. Evans, of Memphis, Tenn., did yesterday when he reached the pier in Hoboken just in time to see the Vaterland slipping by the pier.

Evans is a tall, square shouldered, good-looking man of about 23. The others in this story are his bride, who was Miss Hattie Goodwin, 17 years old, demure, unusually pretty, and her father a wealthy cotton planter at Holly Springs, Tenn.

Last Saturday the two young folk decided they would get married. Miss Goodwin slipped away and with Mr. Evans went to Chicago, where they lost no time in finding a minister who married them. On the train behind them was the father. He found what hotel they had gone to and followed. The bridegroom of a few minutes had just stepped out of the room when the father broke in, seized the bride and sped away to New York with her to catch the first steamship to Europe. Mr. Evans followed. He reached here, chartered a taxicab and sped for Hoboken. The streets were so slippery that some time was lost, just enough to make him to late at the pier.

At the gangplank the bride balked at going on board and the Vaterland was delayed several minutes. There was a big throng aboard the steamship listening to her father's efforts to persuade her to go on board. Finally he picked her up bodily and carried her to the steamer's deck a

WOULD ENTER PEACE PARLEY

Rebel Leaders Think Arrangements Can Be Made with Hueristas.

MUTINY HAS ALARMED

Carranza's Agents Suggest that Dictator Is Anxious and May Hasten His Retirement from Presidency.

Washington, July 8.—Unofficial advices received here today say General Carranza has decided to authorize the constitutionalist junta here to begin parleys with the Huertista delegates in an effort to settle Mexico's internal affairs.

This acceptance is reported to have been wired direct to Ambassador Da Gama of Brazil, and the latter will confer with his associate mediators in New York today to perfect arrangements to bring the representatives of the warring elements together.

Constitutionalist leaders here, profess to believe an arrangement for a provisional government can be reached. They say that Huerta is ready to step down and out.

It is believed the mutiny among his troops in the Vera Cruz district has greatly alarmed Huerta as it has brought home to him for the first time the precariousness of his own condition. Reports have been circulated here for the last twenty-four hours that Huerta has a promise from the United States authorities that he will be granted asylum in Vera Cruz if forced to flee Mexico City.

While Administration officials deny any understanding they point out that the United States has always offered asylum to political refugees who sought the protection of the flag and say that no exception would be made in Huerta's case.

That Carranza expects to settle the revolution without being forced to capture Mexico City is indicated by the outcome of the Villa-Carranza mediation parleys. Villa and his troops are going to remain in the north with headquarters in Chihuahua.

This, officials here who are following events in Mexico City say, would hardly be the case if any energetic hostile movements were contemplated at the present time.

FIGHT ON TOP OF TRAIN

Conductor and Two Men Desperately Struggle for Pistol on Speed Train.

Roanoke, Va., July 8.—Albert B. Flannagan, a Norfolk and Western conductor, whose home is in this city, fought a desperate battle a day or two ago for the possession of a revolver with two men on the top of a box car which was attached to a freight train.

The conductor won with the assistance of a negro brakeman after he and his assailants struggled almost to the edge of the car, which was running at a rapid rate near East Radford, Va. The men, who were stealing a ride, had been put off the train by Conductor Flannagan. They boarded it again and one of them attacked Flannagan with a pair of heavy pliers. The conductor knocked the pliers from the man's hand and then began the struggle for the revolver which was protruding from Flannagan's hip pocket.

YOUNG WOMAN DROWNED

Automobile 'Plunges Over End of Ferry in North Carolina.

Elizabeth City, N. C., July 8.—Pretty 18-year-old Ruth Guard, daughter of J. T. Guard, a prosperous farmer of Currituck County, left home yesterday morning with her father in his automobile to come to Elizabeth City to take some of her schoolgirl friends home with her for a house party. The automobile ran off the barge at Lambs Ferry, two miles from town, at 10 o'clock, plunged into the Pasquotank River in thirty feet of water, and she was drowned.

Mr. Guard was driving the machine, which contained his daughter and two friends, A. B. Midgett and V. B. Griggs. When the car was driven upon the barge the emergency brake failed to work, the barge tilted, and the machine kept on and plunged over the opposite end of the boat. overboard and went to the bottom of the river.

The three men managed to clear themselves of the car, rose to the surface and were rescued by the colored ferryman. Miss Guard was caught in the to p of the machine and drowned.

Attempts to Wreck Train.

Staunton, Va., July 8.—A "hot pin" on the engine of Chesapeake and Ohio train No. 1 a few nights ago, probably saved that fast flyer from a serious wreck.

When the train reached Staunton the "hot pin" was noticed, so Engineer W. J. Jones, of this city, brought his train to a standstill at the top of the Bell's Valley hill to put grease in the cup. This done, he started off but had not proceeded far before he discovered a railroad tie lying across the track. The flyer was then making only fifteen or eighteen miles an hour and hence was brought to a stop before the obstruction was reached. Had the pilot struck the tie it would in all probability have been driven back under the engine and the entire train derailed.

Proceeding on its way to Goshen, and while running forty or fifty miles an hour, the same train suddenly ran upon a heap of scrap iron, consisting of bugy wheels, taxles and tires. Fortunately the engine was not derailed.

PRESIDENT MAY VISIT RICHMOND

Committee Went to Washington to Extend Invitation.

THINK HE WILL COME

Bankers' Association Will Meet in Virginia Capital in October—Plans for Their Reception.

Richmond, July 8.—An invitation to President Woodrow Wilson to make an address in Richmond during the session of the American Bankers' Association in October will be extended tomorrow morning by a special committee representing the city, the bankers' association, the business organizations of Richmond and the local arrangements committee. It is known that the President has desired for some time to accept an invitation to Richmond, and it is believed in view of the fact that the new banking system will by that time be in full operation, and (very probably that the President's program of anti-trust legislation will have been enacted, that he will welcome an opportunity to make an address to the assembled bankers of the United States.

An engagement for the committee to meet the President tomorrow morning at 10:45 o'clock has been made at the White House by United States Senators Martin and Swanson and Representative Montague.

The Richmond committee will leave for Washington late this afternoon. It will be joined at the new Willard Hotel in Washington tomorrow morning by Senators Martin and Swanson, Representative Montague, Comptroller of the Currency, John Skelton Williams, and by several members of the executive committee of the American Bankers' Association.

The great convention will be one of the largest and most important that Richmond has ever entertained. Last year there were 4,000 delegates and visitors in attendance on the convention, which met in Boston, and already the committees in charge have received many requests for hotel reservations, indicating a very large attendance. The dates of the convention are for the week from October 12 to October 19.

Although several times invited, President Wilson has not visited Richmond since his inauguration. He was in Richmond and addressed the General Assembly in session at the Capitol a few months before his nomination at the Baltimore convention. His predecessors for many years past, including Presidents Taft, Rooseevlt, McKinley, Cleveland and others, have visited this city during their term of office and been officially entertained. President Taft having been the guest of the city on two ewll-remembered visits.

WAR RELIC BURSTS

Old Shell Seriously Injures a Suffolk Boy.

Suffolk, Va., July 8.—Sheldon Vaughan, 18-year-old son of John S. Vaughan, a Suffolk jeweler, lies at St. Andrew's Hospital, probably fatally injured from wounds received from an old shell with which he was playing.

The old shell, supposed to be a relic of the Mexican War had lain about the house for 14 years. The father had several times examined it, and thought all the explosives were out. This morning the boy took up a stone and began hammering on the cap. An explosion took place, blowing off the boy's left hand, tearing all the flesh from the right leg, and two pieces of shell entering the face and causing a fracture of the skull.

Staunton, Va., July 8.—Dr. A. C. Moore, a well-known physician of Shenandoah County, in attempting to locate a leak in the gasoline tank of his automobile by means of a lighted match, recently received injuries that almost cost him his life.

OVERLAND SIX-CYLINDER

Important Announcement in the Automobile Trade.

An announcement of more than usual interest to the general automobile trade and the public, but more particularly to the many dealers who handle Overland cars, has just come from J. N. Willys, president of the Willys-Overland Company.

As announced some time ago, Mr. Willys will materially increase his production of four-cylinder models for 1915, while the new six-cylinder Overland, whose preparation has been so carefully guarded, will, for one thing, serve the purpose of giving Overland dealers a line of cars so complete and inclusive as to enable them to satisfy the varying demands of their customers with the product of a single manufacturer.

The six-cylinder addition to the Overland line will retail at $1,475.00, at which figure it has all the appearance of a record-breaking value that is unattainable to any but an old and well-equipped, quantity-producing manufacturer like J. N. Willys.

In appearance the Overland Six is stylish and impressive, and, according to the manufacturers, a revelation in service. The wheel base is 125 inches.

The long stroke motor is rated at 45-50 horse-power, the handsome streamline body seems to indicate fleetness and power. Tires are 45x 4 1-2 on demountable rims, and every modern automobile convenience, such as self-starter, electric lights, etc., have been incorporated in the liberal specifications.

FALL OF SCAFFOLD.

Some alarm was experienced by workmen employed in the construction of the new moving picture building on the north side of King street, near Alfred, this morning when a scaffold containing a man, a pile of bricks and some mortar fell with a loud crash. It was naturally supposed that the workman had been injured, if not killed, but he emerged from the debris none the worse from his experience.

ORDERED TO LEAVE CITY

Stragglers from Kelly's Army Warned of Consequences of Stopping Here.

Since the appearanee near Alexandria of an army of itinerants under "General" Kelly, the police of this city have been kept busy in making such of the band as invade town to move on. They occasionally encounter some who are impudent and disposed to argue the constitutionality of being made to play the part of the Wandering Jew. Such specimens are arrested and brought before the Police Court, when they are given but one hour in which to make their way outside this bailiwick.

Three itinerants of the genus referred to were placed before the bar this morning. They were of the mild-natured stripe, and were allotted the usual time in which to make tracks. They accepted the situation, thanked the court and turned their faces toward the north.

Alexandria has for many years been infested by tramps. In fact, the city was given a world-wide advertisement at one time from the fact that what was known as Schuker's barn, was at that time standing and used as a roost. Hoboes upon reaching the confines of this city inquired the way to this rookery. A tramp was brought before Police Court many years ago. He had made his way to this retreat upon the direction of a nomad he met in Liverpool. The barn was destroyed by fire some time ago.

The plaintiff is represented by Attorneys C. E. Nicol, John S. Barbour, and Thomas Lyon, and the defendants by Samuel G. Brent, of this city, and Reginald P Melvin, of Annapolis.

Officer From Fort Washington Captures Escaped Prisoner.

A scene was enacted late yesterday afternoon aboard an electric car just as it was leaving this city for Washington, when an officer of Fort Washington captured an alleged escaped military prisoner at the point of a revolver.

There was consternation among the women passengers, but the officer assured them that there would be no shooting.

The man with the gun was Lieut. Thompson, of Fort Washington, and the man covered by the gun, it is said, was Charles Jolly, who for more than an hour had been making an effort to elude his pursuers from the fort. Lieut. Thompson marched him off the car with the muzzle of the pistol close behind him.

STILL AFTER MONUMENT

Alexandria Firemen Want Shaft Removed from Ivy Hill to This City.

Some time ago the Gazette called attention to a movement which had been inaugurated for removing the monument erected to the memory of firemen who lost their lives at a conflagration in the old Smith china store, on the north side of King street, between Fairfax and Lee, early on the morning of November 17, 1855. The deaths were all caused by the collapse of the north wall after the fire had been placed under control.

The matter was discussed last night at a meeting of the joint committee of the three companies. It is stated that these organizations are working in harmony to secure the success of the enterprise.

The monument was erected by public subscription in 1856 to the memory of George Plain, Robert I. Taylor, John A. Roach, James W. Keene, William S. Evans, J. Carson Greene, and David Appich volunteer firemen, who were victims of the accident.

The memorial is a marble shaft 16 feet high and 4 by 4 at the base. Those who favor the plan to bring the monument into the city direct attention to the fact that the men whose names are on it were buried in various cemeteries; that in its present location it is seen by comparatively few persons, and that it belongs in a prominent position in the city where the men lost their lives. It is understood that the consent of city council and the State legislature must be obtained before the monument can be placed on a public street, and the trustees of the cemetery also must agree before the plans can be brought to a successful culmination. The proposition will first be taken up with the trustees of the cemetery.

The monument was dedicated one year after the fire—November 17, 1856. The money required for the shaft was raised by private subscription. Ivy Hill cemetery had been open but a short time, and that genration supposed the city would in a short time extend its boundaries west, when the monument would be found in a prominent position The people who furnished the money for the shaft favored the present site. The city, however, did not push in the direction supposed, and as time went on it was found that comparatively few persons were aware of the fact that the monument existed.

An organization was effected at the meeting last night, and the following officers were elected:

President, John H. Trimyer.
Secretary, C. E. Howell.
Treasurer, William A. Smoot.

PROPOSED BOULEVARD.

Washington Chamber of Commerce Holds Meeting Today.

Opinions of the Washington merchants in regard to the building of the proposed Mount Vernon boulevard are still being welcomed by the Chamber of Commerce highway committee. Since the meeting of the committee Monday night, when it was decided to take no action on the project until the attitude of Washingtonians could be determined, members of the commitee have been receiving suggestions.

R. P. Andrews, president of the chamber's special committee, has expressed the hope that every one interested in the proposition will let him know their views on the subject.

A meeting of the joint Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade financial committee was held today.

GOOD WORK BY VIRGINIANS.

As Congress draws to a close comment in Washington is widespread and impressive regarding the eminence of Virginia and Virginians in both the House and Senate. As a matter of fact, the Old Dominion stands in the forefront of all the States as having the greatest number of influential men and real statesmen.

In the Senate, Thomas S. Martin is recognized as the most potential figure among his colleagues. Not only in this true so far as the sentiment among Senators is concerned, but there is the additional fact that President Wilson, on several occasions, has voiced in emphatic terms his gratitude to both Mr. Martin and Mr. Swanson for the sterling manner in which they have held up the hands of the Administration throughout its entire legislative program. Hardly second to Martin's supremacy is the uniformly excellent work done by Mr. Swanson, both as a speaker on the floor and as a worker in committees.

In the House Virginia's standing has been made all the more impressive by the manner in which the younger—that is the newer—members have forged to the front, both in personal influence and in their committee work. Watson and Saunders, both new men, whose services have just been prolonged two more years by renomination, are conspicuous in Congress as having built up in a phenomenally short time reputations for weight and efficiency.

So pressing and important were their legislative tasks that, at a time when most Congressmen absent themselves from Washington for the purpose of insuring their renomination, these two were compelled to stick to their posts in the national capital. Being leaders in various phases of the legislative program, their presence here was essential.

Among the older members in the delegation, the achievements of Flood, Hay and Carlin have been necessary parts of the most striking things accomplished by Congress. Flood, in handling the legislation affecting Mexico; Hay, in completing an ambitious legislative scheme for the betterment of the army, and Carlin, in shaping the anti-trust legislation, have made Virginia a synonym for statesmanship throughout the country.

In fact this legislative importance of Virginia—which is heightened by the fact that such men as Oscar W. Underwood were educated at the University of Virginia—recalls in a picturesque manner the days of the colonies and the first years of the republic when the voice of Virginia was the commanding note in every conference touching large affairs. The acumen of John Randolph, the unflagging zeal of Patrick Henry and the tremendous work of such men as Jefferson and Monroe—all these are being repeated and made real again by the Virginians who form the most powerful legislative group that has been sent to Congress by any one State in the last fifty years.

STORM IN NORTH CAROLINA

Student Killed by Lightning—Cotton and Other Crops Ruined

Charlotte, N. C., July 8.—Reports coming in today from the country districts show Monday night's storm to have been severe in many places.

The territory extending along the Seaboard Air Line Railway west of Charlotte was the hardest hit and in many places cotton and other growing crops is practically ruined by the hail.

The path of the storm seems to have been most severe at Cherryville, Iron Station and Stanley Creek, where the damage to crops will run into thousands of dollars.

At Charlotte the roof of the office building of the International Harvester Company was ripped off and records and other valuable papers practically ruined.

At Roaring Gap, Allegheny County, a summer resort on top of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Worth Anderson, aged 22, son of Captain William Anderson, former superintendent of public schools for Mecklenburg County, was instantly killed by lightning.

Young Anderson was a Harvard student and was at the resort doing some landscape work.

I take this remedy every once in a while and it keeps me in good health. I was suffering severely from backache. My kidneys were badly disordered and I felt all run down. I was helped so much by the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills that I kept on taking them until I was well."

ACCUSES POLICEMEN.

Caught Them Drinking on Sunday With Sailors, he Says.

Norfiok, Va., July 8.—Declaring he saw policemen drinking with sailors on Sunday, caught them asleep and visited places where whisky was sold with the full knowledge of patrolmen on duty, the Rev. L. Judson Westfall, pastor of South street Baptist Church, Portsmouth, has created a big sensation in that city.

The minister appeared before the Police Commissioner of Portsmouth Monday night and gave the names of policemen and the dates on which he says he caught them drinking beer.

He said on Sunday, June 28, he visited South Portsmouth in search o f evidence of corruption against the police. He said he saw 17 sailors sitting on two telephone poles lying in a field. He joined them and later two policemen came up. The two officers drank three bottles of beer while the preacher looked on. He said he visited a restaurant after midnight and found a policemen drinking with sailors in a back room.

The Rev. Mr. Westfall is reported to have worn the uniform of a United States sailor while securing evidence against the Police Department. He declines to state how he was dressed. The charges are being investigated and it is probable that several members of the police force will be suspended pending the result.

ARLINGTON FLAG RETURNED

Confederate Emblem Taken from Lee's Home Sent to Gov. Stuart.

Richmond, Va., July 8.—A small Confederate flag, six inches wide and 10 inches in length, with a piece of crape sewed in the centre, reached Governor Stuart's office yesterday, having been mailed at Verona, N. J., on July 4 by John L. Johnson, of Newark, N. J., who stated the flag was taken from General Lee's home at Arlington by his brother, who was an officer of the One Hundred and Forty-second New York Infantry.

The writer stated his brother was killed in battle July 30, 1864, and it is desired to have the flag returned to to the heirs of General Lee. Upon his arrival in this city tomorrow Governor Stuart will comply with the request.

TWO SHOT IN BERRY PATCH

Bristol Boy Warned Intruders to Leave.

Bristol, Va., July 8.—Failing to heed the warning of Robert Lovett, a 16-year-old boy, who ordered them from a berry field on the Carmack farm near this place, Edward Wright, aged 16, was shot, perhaps fatally, and Ralph Hass Barger a companion, was less seriously wounded. Lovett is said to have done the shooting. He disappeared and has not been located. Wright is a son of Moses Wright, of Bristol. He was shot in the abdomen.

Likely to Lose Eyes.

Coatesville, Pa., July 8.—Three more accidents as a result of celebrating the Fourth of July were recorded here Monday. While Arthur Chillie, 18 years old, was examining a fuse to a cannon it blew off in his face and probably he will lose both eyes. Thomas Grier struck a loaded shell with a sledge hammer, the bullet grazed his face, inflicting a severe wound.

HAIL STORM IN FRANKLIN CO.

Dillon's Mills, Va., July 8.—A terrific hail storm, accompanied by a furious gale and a tremendous downpour of rain, wrought havoc to farms, orchards, bridges, telephone lines, and, in some cases, to residences in all the territory adjacent to and between Maggodee and Blackwater creeks. Many persons on their return from Roanoke were kept from home over night by high water, washouts, etc. Hailstones as large as eggs are reported by a great number of reliable pepple. Apples and peaches suffered seriously; in some places being almost completely ruined—knocked from the trees, bruised and crushed by the impact with the globes of ice.

A great many people lost their spring houses and all their milk and butter; many springs were over-run and filled with mud and debris fences, canning houses, barnes, wagons and other vehicles and implements were swept away or wrecked by the rushing torrents that poured down every depression.

PUSHED INTO MACHINERY.

Workman Rescued From Death in Grinder, But Loses Leg.

Philadelphia, July 8.—Pushed into a white lead grinding machine at t he works of the John T. Lewis & Bro's Company, at East Huntingdon and Thompson streets, Monday, Kerson Deloyed, a young workman, was being gradually drawn to a horrible death when fellow workmen rescued him, though too late to prevent the grinding of his left leg to a pulp. Deloyed, is in such a condition from loss of blood and shock that he may die at any minute. He is in the Episcopal Hospital.

According to a story told the police, Deloyed was ordered by another man to move some white lead and when he did not work fast enough to suit his superior the latter gave him a push, which sent him into the machine. The man's foot immediately became caught and his cries, when the grinding of the flesh started, attracted other employees, who could not get him out of the machine until his leg had been ground off up to the knee.

After Deloyed had been taken to the hospital Special Policemen Schecklen and Gallagher were assigned to the case. The man who is charged with having pushed Deloyed into the machine has disappeared and a search is being made for him.

Forty Persons Injured.

Elyria, Ohio, July 7.—Forty persons were injured, several seriously, today when a work train on the Grafton division of the Cleveland and Southwestern electric railroad failed to take a switch and crashed into a passenger coach. Twenty of the injured were rushed to a hospital here.

MAN AND WOMAN FINED.

Member of Norfolk Police Force and Companion Arrested in Richmond.

Richmond, July 8.—T. C. Sendalin, member of the Norfolk police force, and Margaret Owen, the woman with whom he was arrested at the instigation of his wife, who came to Richmond looking for her husband, were fined $20 each by Justice Crutchfield in police court yesterday morning. The woman paid the $20, but Sendalin, through his attorneys, noted an appeal.

Mrs. Sendalin, a pretty young brunette, the mother of five children, was in court during the trial. With tightly-clenched teeth, she listened to the brief testimony, and, when her husband was led back to the pen, she calmly turned and left the room.

Mrs. Sendalin appeared Monday afternoon at headquarters and asked the aid of Chief Werner. She furnished the address where the Owen woman lived. After swearing out a warrant, she persisted in her intention of accompanying the officers and was present when the arrest was made. It was with difficulty that Patrolman Tucker restrained her when she saw Sendalin with the Owen woman.

The case was called yesterday morning and the officer who made the arrest stated the case. Judge Crutchfield declared that he had heard enough, Gilbert Pollock, who assisted in the defense, asked the justice if he did not care to hear the rest of the evidence. Justice Crutchfield said: "Yes, I will hear the testimony, but I want to tell you it won't do any good. I have made up my mind." Turning to Chief Werner, who was standing near the bench, he told him to keep a strict eye on the house where the arrest was made.

Sendalin was allowed to tell his story. Both he and the woman declared there was nothing improper in his having called on her, but Justice Crutchfield eyed the ceiling during the recital and announced. "Twenty dollars and costs."

Sendalin will be held until his father arrives from Norfolk to put up bail for his appearance in the hustings court.

COLDEST JULY IN 41 YEARS.

Record Made in New York by a Drop to 54 Degrees.

New York, July 8.—The first seven days of this July established a record for cold weather not matched in early July days in New York in 41 years, according to the records of the Weather Bureau. The average temperature for the week has been 65.8 degrees, reached at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. This is the coldest temperature ever recorded in the month of July here, save on July 15, 1873, when 50 degrees was reached. The average for the record cold July week of 1873 was 57 degrees.

Besides the chilliness, New York has had a double share of rainfall since July 1, with a total fall of 276 inches.

OTHERS BLINDED AND HURT.

THE EXPRESS IS IN THIS TOWN AND IN TO STAY

For seventy-five years—three-quarters of a century—the express has been the right hand of the shippers of commercial America. The Express came to Alexandria in 1850 and it came to stay. For sixty-four years it has been the right-hand of commercial Alexandria.

It is here to stay. The other day when reports went out that the express companies might retire from business, a protest went up. From whom this protest—the express companies? No! the merchants of the country—shippers everywhere—petitioned Congress that no action be taken that might have the effect of forcing the express companies to retire. Commercial organizations all over the land have joined in this appeal to Washington.

For seventy-five years in the past and for a good many more years in the future Express Service will mean
